

North Yorkshire Police, Fire and Crime Commissioner Consultation Questionnaire 2021

This is an opportunity to give your views on the future priorities for policing, fire and rescue and victim services in North Yorkshire and York. Your feedback will help the North Yorkshire Police, Fire and Crime Commissioner, Philip Allott, to form his plans for North Yorkshire Police and for North Yorkshire Fire and Rescue Service for the next three years (2022-2025).

The questionnaire may be completed by people living and/or working in North Yorkshire and York and by representatives responding on behalf of an organisation that operates in North Yorkshire and York.

To give your feedback, please complete this questionnaire by 23:59 on 7th November 2021.

All the questions are optional and any information you provide will be processed by ORS (an independent specialist social research practice) in accordance with the latest Data Protection regulations; any personal information will be kept for no more than 3 months after the project has been completed. ORS will produce an independent consultation report in which feedback from individual members of the public will be anonymous, but views from organisations or someone acting in their official capacity may be attributed in full. For further information, please see www.ors.org.uk/privacy.

If you have any queries about the questionnaire, please contact North Yorkshire Police, Fire and Crime Commissioner's office on 01423 569562 or email info@northyorkshire-pfcc.gov.uk.

ORS is a Market Research Society Company Partner and if you would like to confirm that ORS is a genuine research practice, you can contact the Market Research Society on Freephone 0800 975 9596.

How To Complete The Questionnaire
